20TH INTERNATIONAL HEALTHCARE, HOSPITAL MANAGEMENT, NURSING, PATIENT SAFETY CONFERENCE

SUMMIT AND EXHIBITION

We are delighted to welcome healthcare professionals, researchers, and experts from across the globe to the 20th International Healthcare, Hospital Management, Nursing, and Patient Safety Conference. This platform brings together thought leaders to share knowledge, exchange innovative ideas, and foster excellence in nursing practice, hospital management, and patient safety.

WELCOME MESSAGE

Dr. KaT Zarychta

Healthcare Leader & Business
Development Expert
KaTFenix, Malta

Best Regards

My name is Dr. KaT Zarychta, a Healthcare Leader and Business Development Expert at KaTFenix, Malta, with over 20 years of experience in the medical device and biotechnology sectors. I have worked in international environments, contributing to the growth and development of healthcare innovations.

My expertise includes strategy development, market access, digital health, and entrepreneurship, where I focus on bringing practical and patient-focused solutions to the healthcare system. I have been involved in supporting organizations in navigating complex healthcare markets and adopting new technologies.

I hold a PhD in Laser Physics from Sorbonne Paris North University, along with Master's degrees in Physics and Biomedical Engineering, which provide a strong scientific foundation for my work in healthcare and technology.

In addition, I have completed executive programs at Harvard Business School and Harvard Medical School. I remain committed to advancing patient-oriented digital health and the responsible use of AI in healthcare.

I look forward to having you as part of this brilliant event

About the Conference

If you aim to expand your knowledge, connect with leading experts, and share your ideas on a global stage, we invite you to join us at the 20th International Healthcare, Hospital Management, Nursing, and Patient Safety Conference, scheduled for June 23–24, 2027, in Dubai, UAE.

Target Audience

Healthcare leaders, including CEOs, managing directors, and clinical heads, collaborate with nursing teams, practitioners, and student nurses to drive patient safety and quality care. Academics, researchers, and educators support this mission through training and evidence-based insights. Quality and compliance officers, infection control specialists, risk managers, and patient safety professionals ensure standards, prevent infections, and manage risks. Pharmacists, allied health professionals, and sterile services personnel contribute to safe, effective care delivery. Patient representatives and healthcare IT and policy experts also play key roles in advancing safety, compliance, and continuous improvement across healthcare organizations. This multidisciplinary audience works together to promote excellence and innovation in patient care
